This item was purchased for my great nephew (7) and he was so excited to receive it. It was educational, fun, and even my husband (an astronomy buff) thought it was neat.

Explore the universe without leaving your backyard. This cosmic tool kit has all the facts and galactic gadgets you need: a build-it-yourself telescope, night-sight flashlight that lets your eyes stay adjusted to the dark, star and moon maps, a mariner's quadrant, and tons of cool tips and activities for navigating the vastness of space. Whether you're an astronomer or astronaut, the sky's not the limit anymore. Comes with: 78 page book, collapsible telescope, night-sight-saver f...
